Thank you for your inquiry.

Applicants and service providers who received an approval for an invoice deadline extension for FY2015 recurring services must submit their invoices on or before Monday, February 27 at 11:59 PM EST. USAC cannot process a second invoice deadline extension request for these invoices.

USAC is issuing Personal Identification Numbers (PINs) by email as well as by mail for last-minute requests. Earlier this week, USAC emailed all PINs created on or after February 3, and is continuing to email PINs created in advance of the deadline.

If you receive a warning message when you are working on an invoice but are able to continue (for example, if an applicant receives a warning message that the service provider has not certified an FCC Form 473), complete and submit your invoice by the deadline so that it is timely filed. USAC denials or reductions on timely filed invoices can be appealed to USAC.

The deadline for appealing USAC decisions on BEAR Forms is 60 days after the date of the BEAR Notification Letter. The deadline for appealing USAC decisions on SPI Forms is 60 days after USAC issues the Remittance Statement. If you want to appeal an invoice decision, we encourage you to appeal to USAC as soon as possible so that we can start your review promptly.

[AttachmentFlag]=N[Question2]=I have 3 FRNs 2801495, 2858441, and 2858849 that have reached their past due date of 2-27-17.
Prior to this, I have been working on trying to complete the 498 and submit the 472. I submitted my 498 last Thursday on the 23rd. I have been awaiting to receive the banking verification along with the 498 ID confirmation. I received a message this morning that the banking info that I entered into the 498 was incorrect. I have spoken with our Chief Financial Officer to contact the bank and sort the correct info from our voided checks for me to enter into EPC for the trans number, financial institution number, and account number.

Even though my FRNs are past the due date, do you know if there is anything that I can do to allow USAC to waiver or extend these for a few more days? Thanks for any help.

Hi Lee,

I sent an Email to USAC concerning my 3 FRNs that are past their 2-27-17 deadline. I have their response as part of this message. It looks to me as if they are saying that the FRNs can not be extended. If at all possible, I would like to find someone up the ladder who I can try to appeal to for a small extended window.
